DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Drawings

2. Figures 1-3 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 3651

- Claim 1 recites the limitation "the outlet track" in line 9. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
- Claims 2-4 depend from claim 1.
- Claim 2 recites the limitation "the succeeding cigarette" in line 9. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
- Claim 1 is two sentences. The claim(s) must be in one sentence form only. Note the format of the claims in the patent(s) cited.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

7. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Wiese (USP 5,318,194).

Regarding claim 1, Wiese discloses a device for isolating cigarettes from a quantity of cigarettes located in a shaft (28), comprising a pivotal flap (130) at the outlet of the shaft for releasing one cigarette (30) that is to be isolated, and comprising a retaining element (202) for holding back the remaining cigarettes in the shaft which is disposed above the flap in the direction of movement of the cigarettes whereby the retaining element is a resilient thrust piece.

wherein

- the flap and the retaining element are parts of a pivotal element (see Figures 8-9),
- during a rotary movement of the pivotal element, the flap releases one cigarette, and the retaining element enters the outlet track of the shaft for the purposes of holding back further cigarettes (see Figures 7-9), and
- following reverse rotation of the pivotal element, the flap is located transversely in the shaft and holds back the cigarettes, whilst the retaining element is located outside the shaft (see Figures 7-9).

Regarding claim 2, Wiese discloses the device of claim 1, wherein the resilient thrust piece clamps the succeeding cigarette in the outlet track (see Figure 8).

Regarding claim 3, Wiese discloses the device of claim 1, wherein a container is in the form of a cassette in which the cigarettes are arranged one above the other in a shaft (see Figures 7-9).

Regarding claim 4, Wiese discloses the device of claim 1, wherein the cigarettes that are to be isolated are test specimens for subsequent measuring processes.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
